A few weeks ago, I had the opportunity to travel to Israel with a wonderful group of young rabbis. I, along with Rabbi Jonah Zinn from Shaare Emeth, Rabbi Noah Arnov from Kol Rinah, and Maharat Rori Picker Neiss from Bais Abraham Congregation were asked by the Jewish Federation of St. Louis to be part of this trip that would help us to achieve our goal of reinvigorating the Israel conversation in the St. Louis Jewish community. The conversation had become so polarizing, so black and white, that it left no room for true dialogue disagreement. An issue that had once united the Jewish community had become divisive. We wanted to understand how to create opportunities for a nuanced dialogue that held space somewhere in the middle, validating the notion that one could have deep love and respect for Israel, and yet not support all of her decisions and actions.

We wanted to understand the issues present in Israeli society today. We wanted to hear the narratives of those living in Israel, those who are confronting these issues as part of their daily lives. What motivated them? What challenged them? What troubled them? What did they see as potential solutions to these problems? And how, if at all, could we help?

We met with more people than I can begin to count. We explored the religious tapestry of Israel and met with an archbishop from the Armenian Church, a bishop from the Lutheran Church, the gentleman in charge of the Islamic Waqf, and the Catholic priest who oversaw all of the Hebrew speaking Christians in the region surrounding Jerusalem.

We went into Hevron, in the West Bank, where we toured the Cave of Machpela where it is said that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Rebecca have been laid to rest to see firsthand the stark divisions between Israeli and Palestinian society. In one of the holiest of sites, the tension is unbearable. The building is split, literally, down the middle with barricades and locks dividing the tombs. Jews pray on the side where Abraham and Sarah are buried, Muslims on the side of Isaac and Rebecca. There is coexistence, yes, but coexistence without any interaction, without any true opportunities to live together, side by side, without locks and barriers.

In Hevron we met with one of the original settlers of Hevron, who moved there just days after the 1967 war. He said that he moved because he had been spared twice. He had narrowly escaped Germany before the Holocaust and he fought in the War of Independence in 1948 – he lived when many he loved died. And so at this moment in history, when so many people for so many centuries had yearned to return to this piece of land, and in fact had given their lives for it, how could he sit comfortably in his home in Tel Aviv? This was God's plan for him; he was being called to settle the Land.

That same day we toured East Jerusalem to see firsthand the living situations of our Palestinian brothers and sisters. It pained me to see the blatant disrepair of these communities. But the moment that stopped me in my tracks, that forced me to come face to face with the tremendous inequity at play, was when we watched the residents of the West Bank cross into West Jerusalem. We met with people who are trying to find ways to co-exist within the boundaries that have

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN US FOR DESTINATION DINNER!

Saturday, October 10

6:00 - 7:15 pm - Wine, Appetizers, and Musical Entertainment at CRC
7:30 pm - Dinner at a CRC Member's Home

St. Louis' most progressive congregation is progressing around the map. Join us for an adventure! Do you remember back in high school or college when groups would host Destination Unknown parties? You showed up at a designated meeting spot, hopped on a bus, and were taken to an exciting surprise location. Well, CRC's Destination Dinner will be just as fun, but with nicer accommodations!

On the evening of the event, we will start out with light entertainment, wine, and appetizers at CRC. Then folks will head to their dinner destination at any one of a dozen CRC members' homes. You won't know where you are going until you hit the road (please no texting and driving). Where you'll stop, nobody knows! Your gracious hosts have agreed to entertain 10-20 people for the evening. This will be a great way to enjoy the company of people you love, connect with old, and make new friends!

To RSVP, please by contact Tristan Jones at (314) 361-1564, ext. 100 or tristan@centralreform.org. You can also contact Tristan with any questions. The cost is $36 per person for the cocktail party at CRC only ($54 for two people) or $72 per person to attend both. We can't wait to join you for this exciting event!

OCTOBER SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY SHABBAT - SEXUAL ABUSE IN RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES

Friday, October 9, 7:30 pm

About a year ago, CRC members Ken Chackes and Susan Carlson, along with members of their law firm, helped lead a rally on the streets of downtown St. Louis demanding justice for victims of sexual abuse at the hands of clergy. The issue has, unfortunately, still not gone away.

For October's Social Responsibility Shabbat, we are grateful to welcome Ken and Susan, who will discuss their pursuit of justice on behalf of their clients, as well as the widespread problem of sexual abuse in communities of faith.

For more than 30 years Ken Chackes has been representing individuals whose legal rights have been violated. Ken's current practice is focused on sexual abuse law, employment law, and disability rights.

Susan Carlson has over 35 years of experience representing clients in federal and state courts and in various types of civil litigation. She also had the honor of being elected to the Missouri House of Representatives, representing parts of St. Louis City and County around Forest Park, from 2011 to 2013.

We would love to see you there. For more information, please contact Jennifer Bernstein at (314) 361-1564, ext. 117 or jenniferb@centralreform.org.

A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR CRC MEMBERS - MELTON PROGRAM OF ADULT JEWISH LEARNING WITH CRC AND BAI ABE

Program will begin October 28 and continue weekly on Wednesdays from 7:00 - 9:00 pm for 25 sessions

Are you looking for a profound understanding of what it means to be Jewish? Join us to explore the texts of our tradition and discover how they relate to us today. And it will be fun, too! This will be a true pluralistic experience, as the teachers will be the rabbis from CRC and Bais Abe.

This two hour curriculum offers two courses:

Purposes of Jewish Living asks... Why do Jews believe as they do? What are the big questions of life and how do Jewish thinkers answer these questions? This course explores ancient and modern responses to many of the major issues of Jewish thought and theology.

Rhythms of Jewish Living asks... What's the point of living Jewishly? What ideas, beliefs, and practices are involved? This course examines a wide variety of Jewish sources to discover the deeper meanings underlying Jewish holidays, lifecycle observances, and Jewish practice.

The cost to participate is $500, plus a $60 book fee. Scholarships will be available - we don't want finances to be a barrier to participation! Please go to the CRC website (www.centralreform.org) where there is a link to the registration. Please contact Rabbi Deana Sussman at (314) 361-1564, ext. 113 or deana@centralreform.org with any questions. A minimum of 15 participants is required to hold this course.

TRIPLE CHAI + BRUNCH AND PROGRAM (ANYONE 55 AND OVER)

Sunday, October 4, 10:30 am - 12:30 pm, CRC Multipurpose Room

CRC member and physical therapist Joy Sterneck will discuss ways to improve balance and what factors contribute to falls as we age: "Don't Let Your Next Trip be a Fall." Dress comfortably because we will be moving around!

Caterer Leslie Caplan is going to be preparing the entrees for the October brunch, so the food is sure to be good and plentiful. We are requesting that you bring either fruit or dessert (last names A-L) or a salad (last names M-Z). The cost per person is $1.25.

Please RSVP so that we can know how many will be attending. RSVP to Claire Hyman at claire.j.hyman@sbcglobal.net or Anita Wilson at anita63146@yahoo.com or (314) 878-3502.

OCTOBER UNIVERSITY SERIES: KNOWING THE NARRATIVES OF ISRAEL AND PALESTINE WITH RABBI DEANA

Tuesdays in October, 7:00 pm (including October 6)

Israel is a land of many peoples and many histories; she is a land of multiple truths. What are some of the issues that Israel is facing today? What are the narratives of the people who live there and encounter the tensions every day as they continue to search for peace? This class will explore some of the issues that deal with questions of Israel's identity. What are her priorities? What are the tensions? We will explore religious pluralism in Israel, the tensions between being a Jewish State and a democracy, the questions of coexistence and peace with our neighbors, the gender divide in Israel, and much, much more. Together, we will create a safe space where authentic dialogue can take place and make room for the diversity of opinions and emotions that speak to our varied relationships with Israel. We hope to see you there!

SECOND THURSDAY -- CRC MEMBER ENGAGEMENT Thursday, October 8, 6:30 pm

Stuck in a rut?

Want to get involved at CRC, but don't know how?

Fancy a great way to get involved and want to learn more?

Then Second Thursdays are for you! Most CRC committee and circles have moved their meeting dates to the 2nd Thursday of the month. It's our way to "marry" the work of the synagogue while bonding and socializing with our fellow members. Just come to CRC on October 8 at 6:30 pm for a brief learning with Susan Scribner from Jewish Federation, announcements, and a blessing. At 7:00 pm we will break into our committees and circles for the next hour or so. Join us in the oneg for dessert and conversation.

If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Bernstein at (314) 361-1564, ext. 117 or jenniferb@centralreform.org.

been set in place. We met with an esteemed panel of Jewish feminist voices in Israel who spanned the spectrum of religious diversity where we talked about the unequal gender biases that still plague Israel. The list goes on and on.

But the question that we kept returning to, the question that continues to dominate our conversation, is this question of identity. What is Israel's identity? Is Israel a Jewish State, meaning that she is a state which operates under the structure of halakhic (Jewish law) authority? Is Israel a State for Jewish people, meaning that she should represent the plurality of Jewish expression present within her borders and serve as a refuge for Jews around the world, regardless of their religious observance level? Or, is Israel a Democratic State for all of her citizens, meaning that Israel should live by the values that Judaism holds dear, the most important of which is to treat every person with respect and dignity?

These are the questions that seem to have no answer. Whenever we are confronted by questions of what Israeli society should look like, we are really coming back to these questions of who Israel is, at her core. These are the questions that show us that there is no black and white answer, no clear cut response for how we should speak about Israel. How do we love Israel but disagree with her decisions and her actions? How do we engage in the metaphor of hugging and wrestling, supporting and challenging? How do we support Israel when she may not be living out the values that we support?

And these are the questions that we have to continue to engage with. We cannot simply walk away. Whether we agree, disagree, or fall somewhere in between, we have to continue the conversation. We can do this in many ways. CRC's Israel Circle is finding creative ways to explore these topics. In addition, our October University Series will be focused on these questions as well, and provide a safe space for people to struggle with these tensions.

As we begin this new year of 5776 together, I hope that we will make a commitment to return to the Israel conversation, even though it's difficult, and even though it may, at times, be frustrating. It is only when we can come together with respect for the diversity of opinions that surround these issues and truly listen to one another that we can begin to find ways to work together and to live in peace with one another.

B'Ahavah (with love),

Rabbi Deana

SUPPORT OUR FIRST RESPONDERS ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 26

We are collecting grocery gift cards and non-perishable foods (we are looking for easy snack foods as officers cannot cook at the station) for gift bags to deliver at fire and police stations in the city and county. Please leave the gift cards with Tristan at the front desk. There is a bin in the oneg for the food donations. On Thanksgiving morning, we'll say "thanks" by delivering the baskets. Please meet at CRC no later than 9:45 am to pick up gift bags and addresses of police and fire stations. This is a great opportunity for families and individuals of all ages to do a mitzvah before heading to our Thanksgiving celebrations. RSVP to Mel Goldman at melonpershing@sbcglobal.net.

Maggie's Corner...

UDGY POTLUCK NON-BOOK CLUB

Monday, October 5, 6:00 - 8:00 pm at CRC

Please join this new group of folks who want to read books that make us wonder, question, and learn...and maybe feel even a little bit udgy! Want to talk about them with other like-minded folks? Want to share and eat good food while we do it? We would love for you to join us! After October's get together, we plan to meet every other month on the first Monday of the month. Our next session will be December 7.

The October book is...The Dovekeepers, by Alice Hoffman. This is a 2011 historical novel about the Siege of Masada by Roman Empire troops. It takes place toward the end of the First Jewish-Roman War.

If you have questions please contact Maggie Duwe: maggie@centralreform.org.

Maggie has in mind a couple of other books and she hopes you will think of suggestions too. Please contact her at maggie@centralreform.org with your ideas!

THANK YOU!

The rabbis, staff, members, and guests of CRC would like to extend a hearty thank you to all of the anonymous bakers who made the delicious treats for the Rosh HaShanah oneg. They were fabulous!

OUR CRC KIDS ARE MENSCHES!

Although it was one of the most beautiful days of the year, and there was a lot going on around St. Louis, our inaugural Mensch Makers program on September 19 was a huge success! We were joined by 18 CRC children and their families to make New Year's gift bags for Jewish residents of nursing homes that are not connected to the Jewish community. Through the Chaplaincy Program at Jewish Family & Children's Service, Rabbi Micah Buck-Yael visits these seniors on a regular basis, and was extremely touched that we were donating gift bags for him to bring to his clients. As you can see from the pictures below, not only did we do a mitzvah, but we had a lot of fun too. But the most important takeaway from the day was how excited our kids were to help others. According to one CRC mom, "My son loved it all -- it was so well organized and thoughtfully put together, making the 'work' fun for the kids. My parents are quite elderly so my son understood who the bags were for and wanted to make some for his own grandparents. It was such a lovely way to begin teaching tikkun olam to my son. He spoke about it all weekend, telling friends about the experience." A big thank you goes out to Amy Gage, VP of Social Action for her hard work in organizing this wonderful event!

We hope you will join us for next month's Mensch Maker program on Sunday, October 25 from 1:00 - 3:00 pm at the Harvey Kornblum Jewish Food Pantry. You must RSVP for this program because consent forms need to be filled out beforehand. We are asking that all participants to bring non-perishable food items or toiletries. To RSVP, or for any questions, please contact Jennifer Bernstein at (314) 361-1564, ext. 117 or jenniferb@centralreform.org.

CRC Congregational Retreat

Friday, November 6, 5:00 pm -
Saturday, November 7, 3:00 pm

Explore Shabbat among the trees and around the campfire with Rabbi Randy at beautiful Camp Wyman located near Eureka, Missouri. We plan hiking, a fire circle, and classes for all. Three meals (Friday dinner, breakfast & lunch on Saturday) will include a vegetarian option. Each cabin accommodates 10 persons - indicate others with whom you want to share. The cost is $36 per adult/$22 per child under 15.

Fees should not be a barrier to attendance.
For more info, or to register for the retreat, please contact Jen Fishing at (314) 361-1564, ext. 117 or jenf@centralreform.org.

MAKE A NEW CONNECTION - BECOME A BLESSING BUDDY!

Blessing Buddies is a program that CRC has developed to connect different generations, celebrate our elders and share stories. A "younger" generation is paired with an elder (typically someone who is 80 years old or older) with the hope that connections can be made on a monthly basis. Developing a relationship and visiting a Buddy relieves isolation experienced by many seniors. Friendly visits are enriching to both the senior and the volunteers. Some seniors are not isolated or lonely. This program can also serve as a wonderful experience for the "younger" visitor.

Seniors who welcome 'a Buddy' into their home have rich and diverse backgrounds. They receive friendly visitors for reasons that are varied and particular to their own specific needs and stage of life. Many have either outlived their families or have younger family members who live far away and cannot visit frequently. Whatever the reasons, in receiving friendly visitors, seniors open their lives and hearts to new encounters and look forward to meeting someone new.

When you become a Buddy to a senior citizen, you give yourself and your older friend the opportunity to begin a mutually rewarding friendship. Through common interests and experiences, you can establish a relationship that will broaden and deepen both your lives.

We are so grateful to all of you who have made the generous effort to connect with some of our special, blessed CRC members. It is such a mitzvah to reach out to someone we don't know and establish an ongoing friendship. We have never come together as a group, and there is so much richness to share. We just want more of you! For more information, or to sign up to be a blessing buddy or to get a blessing buddy, please contact Wendy Bell at (314) 361-1564, ext. 104 or wendy@centralreform.org.

2015/5776 SIMCHAT TORAH CELEBRATION/CONSECRATION

Saturday, October 3, 10:00 am

Please join us for one of the most amazing Jewish experiences you will ever have as we unroll the Torah and celebrate! We will also formally welcome our kindergarten and new students to the CRC Religious School community in a ceremony where they will receive their very own Torah scroll.

We are so excited to announce that the service will once again feature a performance by the band Klezundheit!, which has performed at CRC for every Simchat Torah since 1999. Klezundheit! has also performed on KFUO's radio show "Live from the Garden," and has played concerts and church services at various locations around St Louis, most memorably a Lutheran Mass with all Klezmer music. Klezundheit! is directed by Bob Herman, and features Paul Wexler on clarinet, Tom Bruce on trumpet, Paul Huppert on violin, Bob Miller on trombone and Leon Burke, vocals.

Everyone is welcome to participate in the unrolling of the Torah. Children (and some adults) like to sit on the floor in the aisle and watch the Torah roll over their heads. It's a happy festive holiday for the whole family.

YIZKOR SERVICE

Monday, October 5, 8:00 am

The central aspect of this service is sharing a brief memory of the loved ones we come to remember. It becomes a wonderfully moving and emotional service - a rather intimate space so people have a chance to speak about their loved ones. You may remember any loved ones, not just those who died in this past year. A circle of love envelops everyone who attends this service.

OPENING THE DOORS TO SPIRITUALITY - MULTI FAITH PERSPECTIVES ON MENTAL ILLNESS WITH NAMI

Sunday, October 11,
2:00 - 4:00 pm at CRC

Please come to a free symposium which will include family and peer speakers, along with Pastor Dave Andrus (Lutheran), Rev. Harold Williams (AME), Rabbi Susan Talve (Jewish), Venerable Jue Huang (Buddhist), Dr. G. Naidu (Hindu), and musical selections. Please RSVP to Sharon Lyons at (314) 962-4670 or sharon@namistl.org
